

The motivation letter should justify the choice of Nazarbayev University, as well as elaborate one of the listed topics:

- tell us about yourself, describe a range of your academic interests, personal plans;
- give your own examples that illustrate what kind of diversity applicant can bring to the Nazarbayev University community in case of enrollment;
- a case that shows the significance of the diversity in culture, traditions, life view, etc. for applicant;
- describe personal, local, national, or international problem and its significance/importance for the applicant;
- describe valuable experience, achievements, ethical dilemmas that have made a great impact on the applicant's major choice.

Write not more than 500 words in PDF format.